MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Training

SUBJECT : White House Fellows

Don:

1. Per our telephone conversation today, it would be appreciated if you would arrange a combination dinner or luncheon and briefing here at the Agency for the White House Fellows.

2. Mr. Colby will not participate, but does desire that the Agency host a session for them. Perhaps something on the order of the Brookings luncheons would be in order.

3. As noted in the attached letter, the Fellows could host a luncheon or dinner. If that seems to be a better method of Agency participation, I feel certain that would be acceptable. Mr. Colby did, however, express an interest in having them out here

PRESIDENT'S
COMMISSION ON WHITE HOUSE FELLOWSHIPS
THE WHITE HOUSE

75-6666

December 15, 1975

Dear Mr. Colby:

The fourteen members of the 1975-76 class of White House Fellows, who began their assignments here on the second of September, were chosen from among 2,307 applicants to serve as special assistants to members of the Cabinet and the President's principal staff. In addition to these full-time responsibilities, the Fellows, as you may know, pursue an intensive education program designed to provide them with an enlarged awareness of the operations and policy problems of government and to expose them to a wide range of current issues and points of view.

As a significant part of their education program, we would be delighted if you could meet with them sometime during the latter part of December or the month of January to discuss the role and responsibilities of the Central Intelligence Agency.

All meetings with the Fellows are off-the-record to encourage the fullest sort of discussion. Usually they would ask you to make some initial comments and then open the meeting for questions and a free exchange of ideas and views. A luncheon or dinner meeting hosted by the Fellows is often, we find, most convenient, but a session at another hour can also be arranged.

For your information, I am enclosing our brochure, highlighting the Fellows' biographies, and a list of their job assignments, as well as a copy of my biography.

I hope it will be possible for you to meet with the 1975-76 White House Fellows, and will look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

Bruce H. Hasenkamp
Director

THE WHITE HOUSE

January 12, 1976

Dear Mr. Colby:

The White House Fellows are delighted to learn you and the Deputy Directors of the Central Intelligence Agency will be able to meet with them for lunch on Friday, January 16, 1976.

We will plan on meeting you at the Central Intelligence Agency in Langley, Virginia, at noon.

As I mentioned to you, the group would hope you might make some initial comments on the operations of the Central Intelligence Agency and share with them your perspectives on the role and responsibilities of the Director; and we would then open the session for questions.

In order that the Fellows might be properly prepared for their meeting with you, we would ask your office to send us biographical and any other materials you think would be helpful.

We look forward to seeing you on January 16.

Sincerely,

Bruce H. Hasenkamp
Director
